

RBS 6 Nations 2010 Twickenham

OFFICIAL RFU HOSPITALITY

England v Wales

Saturday 6th February

Kick off: 5.00 pm

England v Ireland

Saturday 27th February

Kick off: 4.00 pm

Ambro are a provider of official RFU corporate hospitality packages at Twickenham, with match tickets officially allocated by the RFU.

England's rugby finest will begin their campaign on home soil, looking for revenge with a win against Wales, before hosting the Grand Slam Champions, Ireland, for what promises to be an engaging encounter and quite possibly a fixture that is likely to have a major bearing on who wins the Championship.

Ambassador Club

The Ambassador Club is renowned for its ideal location, superb rugby atmosphere and entertaining guest speakers.

The Official RFU Chase Bridge Hospitality Village is the location of the Ambassador Club, just yards from the Stadium and adjacent to the West Car Park, this first class facility combines exceptional service, first class catering and premier match tickets.

Private tables can be reserved for 8 – 12 guests, with smaller parties on shared tables.

Official RFU Hospitality

- Early access to the Ambassador Club
- Officially allocated match ticket from the RFU
- Match day programme
- Coffee and biscuits on arrival
- Champagne & canapé reception
- Four course luncheon with fine wines
- Coffee, port or brandy
- Complimentary bar with draught beer, pre & post match
- Post match, hot savoury dish
- Car park pass, 1 per 4 guests
- Celebrity guest speaker
- Sky satellite TV within the suite
- Event documentation
- Hostess in attendance to ensure the smooth running of the day

Costs

Saturday 6th February
England v Wales	£599.00
Saturday 27th February
England v Ireland	£795.00

Costs are per person plus VAT.
Car park passes are subject to availability.

